

4723-27-10 Fees

(A) The board may impose fees in accordance with division (B)(1) of section 4723.69 of the Revised Code, including the following:

- (1) For applications to obtain an interim medication aide certificate for the period beginning July 1, 2007 and ending April 30, 2008, fifteen dollars;
- (2) For applications to obtain a medication aide certificate to function as a certified medication aide on or after May 1, 2008, fifty dollars;
- (3) For biennial renewal of a medication aide certificate submitted on or before March first of even numbered years, fifty dollars;
- (4) For biennial renewal of a medication aide certificate submitted after March first and before May first of even numbered years, one-hundred dollars;
- (5) For reinstatement of a lapsed medication aide certificate, one hundred and fifty dollars;
- (6) For reactivation of an inactive medication aide certificate, fifty dollars;
- (7) For verification of a medication aide certificate to another jurisdiction, fifteen dollars;
- (8) For providing a replacement copy of a medication aide certificate card, twenty-five dollars;
- (9) For applications for approval to participate in the medication aide pilot program, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five dollars, due to the board within ten business days of notice by the board that the applicant has been approved;
- (10) For applications for approval to operate a medication aide training program on or after July 1, 2007, one-thousand dollars;
- (11) For applications for re-approval of a medication aide training program, five hundred dollars;
- (12) For processing a check returned to the board by a financial institution for insufficient funds, twenty-five dollars;

(B) All payments of fees shall be in the form as specified by the board.

(C) Except for duplicate payments, all fees are nonrefundable.

(D) The board shall issue written notice via certified mail to any renewal applicant whose initial payment is returned to the board by a financial institution for insufficient funds. The applicant shall be given thirty days from the date the applicant receives written notice from the board to remedy the default by reissuing payment and the applicable penalties set forth in paragraph (A) of this rule to the board by certified check or money order. The reissued payment and the applicable penalties shall be received by the board within that thirty day period. The time periods established by the board for penalty fees shall not be suspended during the thirty-day period.

(E) An applicant whose initial payment is returned to the board before the renewal deadline may reissue payment to the board without jeopardizing the status of the applicant's certificate.

(F) An applicant whose initial payment is returned to the board after the renewal deadline will be deemed to have failed to fulfill a renewal requirement set forth in rule 4723-27-05 of this chapter. If the board does not receive the reissued payment and applicable penalties within the thirty-day period, the applicant's certificate shall be considered to have lapsed.
